MAYOR TELLS WHY HE BUYS OUTSIDE OF OWN HOME TOWN

Complains He Cannot Get Orders Filled Here—Merchants Astounded.

Mayor William W. Dodge acknowledged before a well attended meeting of the retail branch of the Mishawaka Chamber of Commerce of Mishawaka at the Hotel Mishawaka last evening that he did his trading outside of Mishawaka, even as far as Boston, simply for the reason that he could not get his orders filled in Mishawaka. Mrs. Dodge he said, could buy cheaper at a specialty children's shop in Boston than she could in Mishawaka. The meeting was called for the purpose of stimulating the "trade at home" project. The Mayor occupied the chair. After considerable discussion on the trade at home slogan the meeting heard a new one—"Try Mishawaka First!" This slogan was unanimously adopted, and it was suggested that during the Christmas shopping season the merchants to the line and as usual give to shoppers the best there is and at the lowest prices. It is acknowledged that the merchants of Mishawaka have stocks of merchandise on hand at all times to suit the most fastidious of tastes, and that in fact a large percentage of their trade is drawn from territory adjacent to their city. Considering the handicap under which local merchants labor especially with the larger use of advertising space by the South Bend merchants, it was considered nothing short of wonderful the amount of business done in Mishawaka. The fact that The News-Times carried almost 500 inches of exclusive Mishawaka advertising in last Sunday's issue and the statement by Oscar Gilbert that he had never regretted spending one cent for that purpose, gave to the meeting a clearer insight to the ways and means of newspaper advertising.

TEMPLE

As will be proven at the Temple theater today, the first law of married unhappiness is—don't doubt your wife! Leah Baird, as clever a writer as she is an actress and a woman, wrote "Don't Doubt Your Wife" and pretends therein the pettiness of jealousy; the folly of stubbornness; the sin of doubt, and the evils of divorce. Miss Baird presents the feminine angle of a masculine viewpoint. She gives the wife's answer to a husband's question. "Don't Doubt Your Wife," produced by Leah Baird Productions for Associated Exhibitors, is pictured against a background of wealth and luxury. A wonderfully staged night rainstorm adds thrills and complications to the plot. James W. Horne directed. The small but competent cast includes Emory Johnson, Edward Peil, Katherine Lewis and Mrs. Mathilde Brundage.

Gives Birthday Party Honoring Her Daughter

Mrs. Louise W. Motts, 214 E. First st., delightfully entertained a party of 12 girls Tuesday evening complimenting her daughter, Miss Dorothy Motts on the occasion of her 15th birthday. The home was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums. Contests, music and games were enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Motts. Miss Motts was the recipient of many pretty gifts.

OPTIMIST CLUB IN PROGRAM AT CIVICS DEPARTMENT MEETING

Members of the Optimist club were guests of the Civics department of the Mishawaka Woman's club Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Slater, president of the organization, presided at the business meeting and Frank Reese had charge of the program which consisted of talks by Clavin Moon and Dr. Crosby. One of the features of the program was two vocal solos by Roy Gravel, eight years old of this city, who is the youngest member of the club. His selections were "I Never Knew Heaven" and "I'm in Heaven." Mrs. R. H. Jernegan and Mrs. Margaret D. Corporan gave a duet entitled "La Chasse-fermale" by Kolling. Mrs. Jernegan sang "At Parting" by Rogers and "Good Morning, Brother Sunshine" by Lehman.
